

Questions for Imperialism: Crash Course World History #35

1. What was the chief European import that the Chinese were interested in? _____
2. According to the Qianlong emperor, why was China not interested in importing anything else?

3. What did the British finally start importing that the Chinese people wanted? _____
4. What was the Chinese government's response?

5. After fighting two wars to stop this British drug trade, the Chinese government gave up control of what city?

6. Why were European countries able to conquer so much of the world? I _____
7. What three diseases were common in Africa, but the Europeans had no immunity to?
_____, _____, _____
8. What medicine helped with the symptoms of malaria? (He says it quickly, so you may need to speak to the Google.) Here's a hint Q_____.

9. What was the name of the machine gun that gave the British an advantage when they colonized the world? (It was named for the inventor.)
BONUS: Complete the lines of this famous poem:
"Whatever happens, we have got,
_____."
10. How many British administrators ruled over how many Indians?
_____, _____
11. What does indirect rule mean?

12. Copy his description of Business Imperialism: I'll get you started: "Industrialized countries push economic integration upon _____

13. Write a paragraph (50-75 words) on the back of this sheet. Put the statement above (the answer to 12.) in your own words and apply it to what you learned about Africa.